

The Graphic's Own SPORT COLUMN

No. 11—Murray Vernon
A half-dozen frames from a sixteen-second movie of the smiling Murray Vernon, of the Crescent Athletic Club, New York State handball champion, who won the finals of the singles in the A. A. U. handball tournament on the courts of the Brighton Beach Baths last Sunday after a four-set struggle against Ted Swertlow, captain of the City College team. Vernon with his partner, Bob Dowling, of the N. Y. A. C., were eliminated in the doubles semi-finals.
Movie by Jack Summers

THE MATTERHORN OF THE CANADIAN ROCKIES, Mount Assiniboine (11,870 feet), and its group of a dozen or more satellite peaks, just south of Banff, Alberta. The country in this wonderful panorama has been set aside as Mount Assiniboine Park and as such will continue to be a magnet for members of the Alpine Club of Canada.

IN MEMORIAM. A portion of one of the five groups have recently been collected in Cedar Falls, by William Dodge, of New York. The decorative panel above is 12 feet deep, and is of striking color. In the foreground are the figures of America and War, and in the background are the figures of Peace and Family.

"According to the papers."

"my match with Swertlow"

"last Sunday afternoon"

"was the hardest fought"

"of the season. I'll say"

"the papers had it right."

"THE WIDOW'S MIGHT." Miss Mildred Williams, who had the principal role, that of the Widow, in the musical farce written and produced at the Hotel Plaza last week by members of the U. S. Mortgage and Trust Company Club, under the direction of William A. Halloran jr., who also wrote the lyrics.

"TACKS" HARDWICK, famous Harvard and All-America football star of yesteryear, who as a member of Hayden, Stone & Co. captained the Boston Bond Club baseball team in their annual match with the New York Bond Club players—a feature of the customary spring outing of Wall Street men of affairs, held a week ago last Friday at the Sleepy Hollow Country Club and on the adjoining estate of Frank A. Vanderlip.
Paul Thompson

Right—IRENE BIDS NEW YORK AU REVOIR. Mrs. Irene Castreman, wearing deep mourning for her mother who died recently, makes an attractive picture as she smilingly waves goodbye to her friends and admirers from the deck of the S. S. Lafayette on which she sailed last Saturday for a vacation in European centers. The popular dancer, as you may observe, was accompanied by "Joy", her pet peke.
Wide World

LADY WODE the recent bride of the British polo player, is pictured on the left in the group. She was tender in the operation of the tennis racket. Lady Wode is the daughter of Colonel L. H. Irby, former her regiment was Mrs. Margate.
Kodak

Left, above—MRS. "BABE" STAGES A COME-BACK, TOO. The Sultan of Swat had no more loyal supporter among the 38,000 who welcomed him back to the Polo Grounds last Saturday than Mrs. Ruth herself. Just out of the hospital after a serious operation, the home-run king's queen rooted hard for hubby's first 1922 homer. I. F. S.

Right—WINGLESS ANGELS. A trio of Bostonian classic dancers indulge in some planeless gliding along the shores of the Charles River, and the photographer managed to catch in this striking snapshot all three of them clear of the ground in one of their floating poses.
Kodak & Herbert

AT LONG BEACH'S NEWEST RENDEZVOUS. Graceful Ruth Cramer, one of the exquisite play dancers who entertained at the gala opening of the Veranda del Mare, the Hotel Nassau's unique restaurant which transplants a colorful bit of the Riviera to Long Island.

Right—HIZZONER SHINES.—AT MARBLES. New York's most famous "friend of the people" bends his knee in Civic Virtue's back yard to demonstrate to the youngsters contending for the city's marble championship last week, just how and how not to knock a glassy out of the charmed circle. Underwood

MOLLA'S SMILE. Molla Bjurstedt, our national woman champion, sails in the women's championship at the Long Beach regatta on June 28th. Molla has the heights that holds, and the time beaten back, goes again, a first, considered this time wearing the laurel at present adorning her temperamental hair.

Left—THE N SPORT OF THE PRINCE. The Prince of Wales, a member of his joy a sporting rise, as an amusement feature of the Tokyo Exposition, is the of his Tokyo estate.

Right—EVERY MAID BE CHAUVINIST. and more than four miles in the new British motor, a gasoline-propelled car that is making with power don't fail to